

Student Committee (One Young World Bath) role description

Role: Voluntary position on the One Young World Bath Student Committee.	Time commitment: 1-3 hours weekly on campus for meeting, planning and organising the conference. On the day of conference (date tbc – a Saturday in late Feb/early March) you will need to be available all day.
Opportunity: The committee will lead on the organisation and coordination of the One Young World Bath conference 2019.
Responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• You will attend and participate in regular meetings to plan the conference.• You will liaise with staff, students and potential speakers.• You will engage staff and students across the University with the conference, raising awareness of the offer.• You will be allocated a specific role based on your interest, knowledge and experience. These roles may include, Marketing & Communications, Web, Speaker/Guest Liaison, Secretary and External Institution and Company Liaison. However, it is important to note that all members of the committee, regardless of allocated role, will be expected to work across all areas and support all aspects of the conference.	Benefits: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Potential of an insight day/internship at One Young World London office.• Free entry to One Young World caucuses.• Time on the committee contributes towards The Bath Award.• Gain valuable transferable skills that look great on a CV.• Network with other likeminded students.• Network with high profile speakers and guests.• Invaluable experience working on an innovative project that has the potential to enact positive change at Bath and beyond.• Gain experience that will enhance an application to attend One Young World 2019.
Experience: Although no formal experience is required, the following qualities are desirable: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Awareness of One Young World• Enthusiasm for enacting positive change• Clear commitment to the planning and delivery of the conference• Positive, can-do attitude• Excellent team working skills• Strong organisation skills• Ability to communicate clearly	Skills gained from this opportunity: <ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Leadership✓ Communication✓ Decision making✓ Teamwork✓ Project Management✓ Negotiation✓ Time Management✓ Organisation/Planning✓ Marketing and Communications
Support: You will be supported by the Student Engagement Manager and Business Engagement Manager in The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences as well as University of Bath One Young World Ambassadors.	To apply: Email Annika Theilgaard (Student Engagement Manager) a.c.theilgaard@bath.ac.uk with up to 300 words outlining the skills/experience you would bring to the committee and any ideas you have for One Young World Bath 2019. The deadline for applications is 26th October 2018.